

ACTION Tidbits

Our first article provokes thought on adjusting your perspective surrounding a question that you've likely asked yourself in countless, frustrated or exhausted situations - "what more can I do?" You'll be encouraged to answer this in a much different way, shifting from negativity to forward-thinking.

Next, we ponder the concept of networking. As society becomes more and more consumed by social media and technology, do you find yourself steering clear of the traditional networking channels? We share a few thoughts on the give and take of face-to-face networking.

What More Can You Do?

I recently had the opportunity to attend The Nautilus Group® annual meeting in Dallas, TX. One of our speakers was inspirational author and speaker John O'Leary, whom we mentioned in last month's issue. John's is a truly amazing story of overcoming odds and persevering through life with a perspective forged by fire (literally.) One important question I picked up from his many great points was, What more can I do...read full article

Networking: Dead or Alive?

Does the term "networking" make you want to change the subject? With a society that appears to be trending further towards social disengagement while being consumed by social media and technology, it's no wonder there is more apprehension and perhaps some social anxiety arising from the thought of networking with other people. But networking does not have to be hard, or time consuming...read full article

Business Owner Seminar:

We have received great feedback from the Life Plan for Your Business seminars we held this spring, so are looking to hold another series in the fall. Business owners, stay tuned for more details!

Birthday Boy

Here's a shout-out to Brian - it's his birthday month! (This piece of the newsletter is a surprise to him ☺)

Be sure to wish him a HAPPY BIRTHDAY on July 31!

AFS Summer Bucket List

Jenny: Visit New York City to see the Statue of Liberty, see the 9/11 Memorial, and do some shopping! (She'll be checking this off her list later this month!)

Krista: Learn to water ski

Brian: Spend several days with his granddaughters

Wendy: Kayak somewhere new

Brad: master his Spanish Level 2 lesson
